

Jekyll & Hyde/Frankenstein Response – Q2

For this response essay, you will evaluate each author's presentation of a view of God, man, and evil/suffering. Utilize one paragraph for each subject as outlined below. Make sure that you use textual proof and make reference to the biblical analysis in your commentary. You will need a works cited page. When complete, the essay will comprise of three paragraphs.

Response essay structure:

I. Prime Reality – Nature of God

A. Jekyll & Hyde example

- i. Quote with citation
- ii. Commentary including biblical response (scripture reference included)
- iii. Transition

B. Frankenstein example

- i. Quote with citation
- ii. Commentary including biblical response (scripture reference included)
- iii. Clincher/Transition

II. Nature of Man

A. Jekyll & Hyde example

- i. Quote with citation
- ii. Commentary including biblical response (scripture reference included)
- iii. Transition

B. Frankenstein example

- i. Quote with citation
- ii. Commentary including biblical response (scripture reference included)
- iii. Clincher/Transition

III. Nature of Evil

A. Jekyll & Hyde example

- i. Quote with citation
- ii. Commentary including biblical response (scripture reference included)
- iii. Transition

B. Frankenstein example

- i. Quote with citation
- ii. Commentary including biblical response (scripture reference included)
- iii. Clincher